YALE WINS FAR AHEAD

Outclasses Harvard in the Great 'Varsity Eights.

LOST THE FOUR-OAR EVENT

Accident to Shell Gave Rivals Opportunity for a Spurt. '

(By Associated Press.), NEW LONDON, CONN., July 1.—Yale won the annual 'varsity eight-orred race from Harvard to-day, and crowned a athletic achievements. She proved, as she has done many a time before, her superiority in everything that goes to make a perfect crew-skill with the ance. Her victory in the 'varsaty rate considered with her grand battle in the four-oared race, which she lost through an accident when it looked like a walkover for her, and the win of her fresh-men eight yesterday in a magnificent struggle, macks it fair to say that she completely outclassed her Massachusetts course was more worth seeing, despite the triumph of Eli Yale, and none proved such a disappointment to spectators through the bungling manner in which the ovents were managed. In the four-cared race the defeat of Yale was due to the breaking of a lock on the outrigger of Fish's oar. Harvard's hollow victory accordingly was brought into great contrast through the superb work of her rival. An incident occurred in connection with this race, but its bearing on the outcome is not considered to have been material. Swain, who rowed number three in the Harvard boat, collapsed just as the crew Harvard boat, collapsed just as the crew was called out, and John Bowditch, who never had filled that seat, went into the boat. He was not in first-class condi-tion, having recently recovered from an attack of measles.

THE OFFICIAL RECORD.

The official time of the finish of the three events, which now constitute the annual competition, including the fresh-men of yesterday, was as follows: Freshmen-leights; two miles-Yale, 10:20; Harvard, 10:20%.

"If," said a prominent Southern sen-ator, "he falls to get the two-thirds vote, requisite by the time that the third or fourth bullot is reached, he will be compelled to retire. In that event, the nom-ination will go to a dark horse, and a very dark horse." Among the "dark horses" most frequently spoken of are Arthur P. Gorman and Joseph W. Folk. John T. Davis, of West Virginia, who are among to-day's arrivals, were out-spoken in their advocacy of Gorman, saying that the West Virginia vote would be cast for him from the beginning. pelled to retire. Question of Platforms. Question of Platforms.

Longer in advance than usual, the platform question is receiving the serious consideration of delegates and others interested in the party's welfare, and it is already evident that there will be pertistent effort to secure an expression of party yiews, which will meet the approval of all of the factions.

Some delegates express the opinion that the principles of the platform will be left almost entirely to Senator German and Congressman Williams, the Democratic leaders in the two houses of Congress.

It is generally believed that the char neter of the platform will have a marked influence upon the prosidential nomina-tion, and as only a majority vote is re-quired for its adoption, its exact words will be awaited with much interest.

GORMAN WON'T BE THERE His Intention to Stay Away From

His Intention to Stay Away From

St. Louis Significant.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—Senator
Gorman will not attend the St. Louis Convention. John R. McLean, of Ohio, who lives in this city, will not be there.
These facts were learned to-day, and they are significant. It is plain that if Mr. Gorman contemplated mischlet, by which is meant if he were at the head of a combnation to defeat the nomination of Judge Parker, he would be on the ground. He is not the man to entrust to lieutenants such important work a6 that which would be done if he proposed to defeat the will of an apparent inajority of the Democrats of the country.

John R. McLean, who has been often mentioned lately as one of those who were at work with Mr. Gorman, Colonel Guffey, and others to encompass the defeat of Judge Parker and bring about the nomination of Mr. Cleveland, would also be nearer the battlefield if he were in such a combination. Mr. McLean has been frequently mentioned lately as an advocate of the nomination of Mr. Cleveland. The report was not credited when first heard, for there was not believed to be a more pronounced anti-cleveland man in this country than John R. McLein. But one or more of the New York papers asserted positively, with circumstantial details, that Mr. McLein lind experienced a change of heart towards the Enge of Princeton, and that he believed he was the only men in the country who could be elected. Mr. McLein told a friend to-day that his attitude towards Mr. Cleveland had not undergoie the slightest change, and that he did not believe he would be nominated, and that he hoped he would be nominated, and that he hoped he would not be.

Though there has been a great deal of talk recently concerning the probability of the nomination of Mr. Cleveland, it is impossible to figure how it is to be accomplished. No man can be found who will admit that he is engineering the Cleveland boom, and the conclusion that it is chiefly picturesque talk is irresistible. Still, there are many men found who profess to believe that Mr. Cleveland will be the nominee, or at least who would not be surprised if he beat Judge Parker. For the fact is clearly realized, that to be hominated Mr. Cleveland would have to beat Judge Parker. It will the Cleveland or Parker, with the chances so greatly in favor of Judge Parker. It will the Cleveland backers are afraid to talk with their money. It is well enough to bear in mind, however, that it is also the field against Parker.

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 1.—Former Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, arrived in the city to-day. He said that no definite arrangements for the organization of the committee had yet been made, and predicted that none would be made until the meeting of the full National Committee, which takes place next Monday, He, however, advocates the selection of John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, leader of the minority in the House, for the position of temporary chairman, and there is now little or no doubt that the selection will fall upon Mr. Williams.

The permanent chairmanship will probably go to some Northern delegate. Thomas E, Barkworth, of Michigan, and Patrick A. Coillins, of Massachusetts, are mentioned in this connection. The double committee on arrangements for the convention will hold a meeting to-morrow, but it is not expected that it will make any recommendation with regard to donvention officers. The National Committee will also take up and dispose of the contests.

People's Party Delegates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LITTLE ROCK, Auly 1.—The State Central Convention of the People's party of Arkansas met to-day and selected delegates to the National Convention. It was determined not to nominate candidates for Governor or other State Officers at present, and it is believed none will be put in the field. The members of the committee declared themselves in favor of the nomination of Thomas Watson, of Georgia, for President, but the delegates were not instructed.
